ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT

The Department of Business Studies (DBS) was established in September 1988. The DBS-Department of Business Studies (previously known as USBS) is an embodiment of grand vision of transforming management precepts and practice in the context of traditional Indian values. The DBS has a firm belief in immense potential and creativity of human resources. The DBS has well qualified and experienced faculty drawn from various streams of management theory and practice. The campus has developed its own culture which is characterized by informality, flexibility, family spirit and above all Espiritedecorps.

The primary objective in setting up this campus was the transformation for the society specifically in higher education in the heart of Malwa region of Punjab. Our philosophy of DBS revolves around a simple notation i.e. investment in human resource development. Those in learning stage now will guide nations' destiny in future. Such a pure and sacred mission makes our job at

FACULTIES & THEIR DEANS

DBS far more productive and purposeful. The unique distinction of this campus is that it is highly oriented towards the extension of professional education in management and in otherwise predominantly rural area.

Department of Business Studies has been created to fill a gap in availability of trained manager capable of taking up the challenges of global environment. The unique method and Programme focus on developing core concept and skills. This ensures that as technology evolves, the student's knowledge does not get out dated. DBS Programmes aim at providing the student an insight and foresight of professional needs to seize new opportunities and lead their companies well into future. Formal class room lectures are supplemented by workshop, seminars as also informal tasks, and discussions among students themselves. The primary source of instruction at DBS is the case study method. Every Programme has been specially developed by a panel consisting of leading academic and industry experts. While the degree programme qualifies a student for a career in functional area of every discipline, the intent is to produce professional who will be the harbingers of change.

FEE AND SCHOLARSHIP

Punjabi University Patiala delivers outstanding education at an affordable fee structure, which is decided after taking into account the economic and social condition of students. We at DBS also charge the lowest fees in the region for its undergraduate and postgraduate Programmes when compared to other colleges and universities' fee structure. All scholarships administered by Centre and State government agencies are also offered to the students of DBS.
